Changed Affections Cause Young Men To Fight.

A young lady, unable to give her attentions to two gentlemen admirers at the same time, was the basis for a rough and tumble encounter one day last week. The details have just leaked out. It appears that a young man from Lehi was paying attentions to the girl when a former sweetheart came up and demanded that she quit the Lehi man. When she refused, the local youth used physical persuasion. Soon both men were rolling in the ditch, and it appears that the discarded lover was underneath with his face being severely punched. Then followed a race down Main Street, with the Lehi man in the lead and his pursuer following with blood streaming down his face on to his white shirt. The defeated man and his pal waited in vain at the depot for the Lehi man to board an interurban car but he, suspecting their intentions, went home in a livery rig. The other side of the story is that the Lehi man used a hammer on his opponent.
